

“I Will Come To You”

John 14:15-31

Pastor Guy Gray

In John 14 -16, Jesus gives His disciples His final words of instruction and encouragement before He goes to the Cross. Every word is precious and overflowing with meaning for our lives. These are words for followers of Christ...those who want to trust Christ, love Christ, serve Christ. And it is all so personal. Jesus is speaking directly to their hearts in a time of great anxiety and challenge. His words are timeless in their truth. They speak intimately to our own hearts as well. As we study this passage today I invite you to open your heart to Christ. Listen carefully and prayerfully to what the Lord will speak to your own heart through these words. There are life changing promises here for us today! Below you will find some of the themes we will explore from our passage in John. Use the space provided to jot down ideas that are meaningful to you. May the Spirit of Christ speak to each of our hearts as we listen to the Words of Christ in the Gospel!
