In the Presence of My Enemies

Psalm 23:4-6

Pastor Guy Gray

6.10.2012

Listen carefully

No one is immune from dark days
Even if the LORD is your shepherd
God does not promise an easy path
But He does promise to walk with you
On every path of life no matter what
This world is loaded down with evil

There are enemies

God doesn't remove the evil

Or destroy the enemies

Not yet

We wait for that day

We long for that day

But until then

He gives us what we need to live

Abundantly

In the middle of the darkness, evil, and enemies

He sets up a feast for you

Right here right now

In the presence of your enemies

Believe it

Come to the table
